St. Rita of Cascia Feast Day, May 22nd

St. Rita was married at a young age and had twin boys. She endured her husband's abuse and infidelity for many years. Her prayers did not prevent her husband's death due to political turmoil. Her sons almost followed in his footsteps as they wanted to kill their father's murderer, but they were saved. They both died a year later. St. Rita entered a convent after her husband's death and was accepted into the Augustinian Order of nuns in Cascia. She often depicted with a wound on her forehead, which represents a thorn from Christ's crown. She received this wound during one of many mystical experiences. St. Rita is known as a peacemaker and persuaded her husband to reconcile with his many enemies before his death. Shortly after she died, in 1457, her body was found to be incorruptible, meaning it did not decay as expected. She is buried at the Basilica of St. Rita in Cascia, Italy. St. Rita was canonized by Pope Leo XIII in 1900. She is the patron saint of desperate situations and impossible causes, as well as a saint for marriage difficulties, parenthood, loneliness, widows, abuse victims, the sick and bodily ills, and wounds. St. Rita pray for us!

As the Church welcomes Pope Leo XIV, we would like to help you get acquainted with People Leo XIV.

1. He is the first American Pope.
2. He is also the first Peruvian Pope (dual –citizen of both United States and Peru) – the first pope from both countries.
3. He has a Bachelors degree in Mathematics from Villanova University in Pennsylvania.
4. He met Pope John Paul II, Pope Benedict XVI, and Pope Francis
5. His native language is English but he speaks and reads several languages
6. His parents are Louis Prevost and J Mildred (Martinez) Prevost.
7. He is the youngest of 3 boys.
8. He grew up surrounded by priests as his mother enjoyed hosting priests and cooking for them.
9. He is a Chicago White Sox Fan.
10. His birthday is on the feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross (9-14-55).

The Prayer of St. Francis de Sales

Be at peace.
Do not look forward in fear to the changes of life;
rather look to them with full hope as they arise.
God, whose very own you are, will deliver you from out of them.
He has kept you hitherto, and He will lead you safely through all things;
and when you cannot stand it, God will bury you in his arms.
Do not fear what may happen tomorrow;
the same everlasting Father who cares for you today will take care of you then and every day.
He will either shield you from suffering, or give you unfailing strength to bear it.
Be at peace, and put aside all anxious thoughts and imagination.

Saint Rita

St. Rita of Cascia is immortalized in this wonderful, deeply moving film.
This story is about the brave woman who married her knight, helped him overcome his dark past and convert to faith, happily bore him two children, and later endures immense pain as she loses everything in her life. Her story and love for Christ will inspire you to great holiness!
